Comparing products, systems and technologies.

This is a list of common adjectives used to describe technologies, tools and systems. Review their meanings in Spanish and their comparative form. Study and try to learn as many of them. They will be evaluated in the next class.

1. Abstract
2. Accessible
3. Advanced
4. Affordable
5. Agile
6. Ambiguous
7. Challenging
8. Cheap
9. Clear
10. Collaborative
11. Compatible
12. Complex
13. Comprehensive
14. Confusing
15. Customizable
16. Cutting-edge
17. Dynamic
18. Easy to use
19. Eco-friendly
20. Efficient
21. Expensive
22. Fast
23. Flexible
24. Functional
25. High-performing
26. Innovative
27. Inspiring
28. Interactive
29. Intuitive
30. Light
31. Overwhelming
32. Powerful
33. Pressured
34. Productive
35. Reliable
36. Responsive
37. Robust
38. Safe
39. Scalable
40. Secure
41. Stable
42. Systematic
43. Useful
44. User-friendly
45. Versatile

Check the following examples:

- Python is more intuitive than other programming languages.
- Cloud storage services offer larger capacity than local storage.
- React is more flexible than traditional frontend frameworks.
- Lightweight frameworks are lighter than full-featured ones.
- GitHub is more comprehensive than other version control platforms.
- Open-source solutions are usually cheaper than proprietary software.

Think about at least five sentences to compare Python vs. Java.

