Introduction to Software - Workshop

Find in the puzzle these words in english:

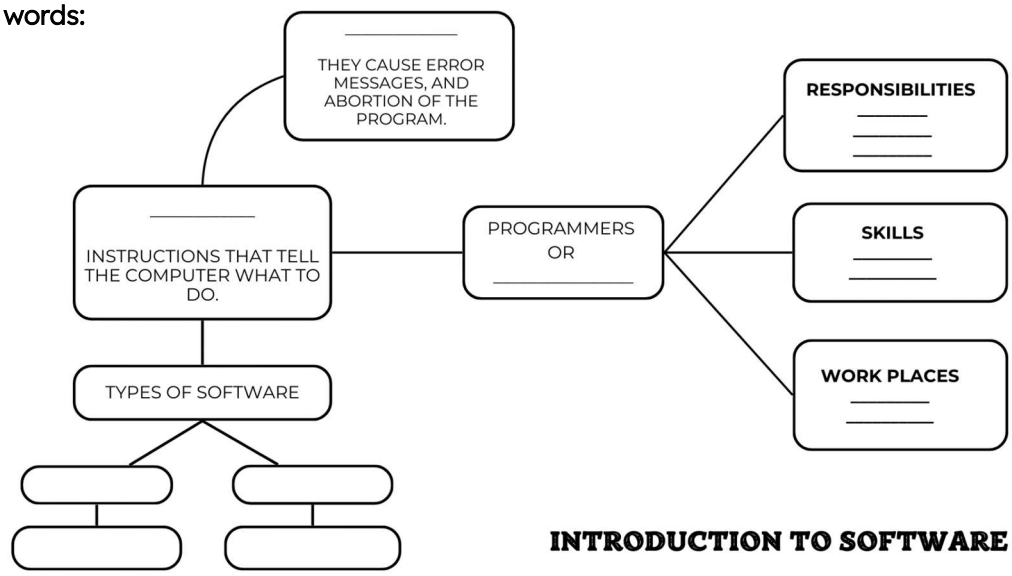

1. Software
2. Desarrolladores
3. Código
4. Ejecutar
5. Empezar
6. Lanzar
7. Start a program
8. Funciones
9. Errores
10. Dejar de funcionar
11. Código abierto

Write true or false

1. Programmers don't need soft skills like communication and problem-solving abilities. false
2. The term 'execute' is used only in programming. true
3. Open-source software cannot be modified by users. true
4. If one line of code in a software program doesn't work, the whole program breaks. true
5. Software developers only work in large companies. true
6. Programmers are also known as developers. true
7. End users like confusing error messages. flase
8. A software bug causes a program to show confusing error messages. true
9. When a program crashes, the best solution is always to restart the computer. true
10. There are three basic kinds of software an IT professional needs to learn. false

Complete the diagram with these words:

Bugs
Closed-source
Developers
Free to modify
Freelancers
Meet with clients
Not modifiable
Open-source
Soft
Software
Technical
Test software
Variety of industries
Write code

Fill in the Blanks

1. Programmers use programming languages like _java_____ and _c++_____ to create programs.
2. Two kinds of software are _____ and _____ software.
3. When a software program doesn't respond, users sometimes have to press _____ to abort it.
4. Good programmers love _____ and prefer open-source software.
5. A _____ can cause a program to stop working or crash.
6. Software developers often meet with _____ to understand their needs.
7. _____ is an example of closed-source software.
8. _____ is an example of open-source software.
9. Developers need to test their programs to make sure they don't have _____.
10. Large companies usually have _____ of developers working together on complex projects.
11. A software program can have millions of lines of _____.
12. Programmers need both _____ and soft skills to be successful.

Extra:

1. What do programmers need to succeed? _____

2. What happens when a software program stops responding? _____

3. What happens when software has a bug? _____